HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
January 9, 2018 6:00 PM

PRESENT: Chairwoman M.L. Maggard, B. Davey, Z. Collister, T. Patti, M. Rhoney, Board Liaison Morreale

EXCUSED: K. Lyle, Historian Sharpe

MINUTES:

Chairwoman Maggard discussed her interactions with the State Historic Preservation representative James Finelli and his assistance in helping the Lewiston Historic Preservation Commission rewrite its proposed amendments to Town Code Chapter 40, to become more compliant with State regulations and to help the Commission become a Certified Local Government.

It was said to mimic the State's current Model Landmarks Preservation Local Law for New York State Municipalities. Collister to type up new Code to reflect this State Law with language for Lewiston. Finelli and Town Attorneys to review prior to presentation to Town Board.

Board Liaison Morreale introduced Councilman Jocoby as our new Liaison for the 2018 year.

Chairwoman Maggard asked if anyone was interested in going to this year's Legacy City Preservation Conference in Buffalo this year. No commitments at this time.

There will be another conference in Albany April 26 – 28th.

Town Clerk is setting up badges for the Commissioners for identification when visiting homes or sites around the town. LPD to take the photos and issue the badges.

Next meeting scheduled for February 13th 6:00PM

Davey made a motion to adjourn, Collister seconded the motion and the motion carried.
